Some fears are catertained for the safety of the wood-choppers, about eighteen miles above the the post, and Colonel Gilbert is about to send a detachment to ascertain what, if any, damage they sustained.

H. A. Morrow,
Brevet Col. U. S. A., commanding post.

CHICAGO, June 22.—To General W. T. Sherman: Several war parties of Indians have appeared at or crossed the Union Parific Railroad at different points between the 22d and 25th of June. Ou the 22d a party crossed at Locking Glass creek, and on the 25th a party of one hundred appeared at Medicine Bow. On the 26th a party of sixty crossed at Rawlins. On the 26th Indian fires were seen on Medicine Bow. About fifty Tedians appeared at Command Medicine Bow. This information is all official. Small parties of troops have pursued these Indians, with seyet unknown result.

There is much excitement not only here but on the continent, in view of threatened European complication on the subject of Frince Leopold's candidature for the Spanish throne. Dispatches from Paris say there is a strong feeling in France, even outside of official circles, against the bestowal of the Spanish crown upon any Hohenzollern. The tranquilizing assurances of the French Emperor have exerted a beneficial effect in Paris morning opened at 70f, 95 centimes, or 18, contines higher than the clessing of yesterday. Five Boys Drowned.

Chicago, July 7.

The five boys drowned at Dubuque, on Monday, were Eddie Gersuch, son of Mrs. T. C. Childs, aged 9 years; Benjamin E. Gilliam, son of Charles Gilliam, aged 12; John and. George Koch, aged 17 and 14, sons of E. Koch, and Frank Thompson, aged 15. Albert Sauer and Willie Gilliam, who were with the party, saved themselves. The boys were engaged in bathing under the ruilroad bridge, where there is a long sand-bar, the water on it being not over two feet deep. Unfortunately the boys got in a group near the lower end of the bar, and while enjoying themselves the bar, which was quicksand, gave away and they were all engulied together, except the two who escaped. A large number of people gathered at the spot and made every effort possible to save the lads, but without success.

NEW REFRIGERATING CAR .- There has just been put on the New Jersey Railroad a new refrigerating car, designed on a new plan, for the transportation of meat. The car is thirty by eight feet, and has capacity for the meat of thirty head o cattle. It has double sides and ends, and between the outer and inner walls the space of three inches is filled with cork. The inside of the car is lined with zinc throughout. Near the roof at each end are gratings, upon which is placed the ice, froin three to four tons being required for the passage. The cold air is pressed downward and encircles the meat which is bung in the car, and taking the impurities it is continually throwing off, carries them to the upper part of the car at the centre, and thence back to the ice, where the drippings are forced off through a pipe running to and through the bottom of the car, and there runs off. In the centre of the car, in the top, is a fan or windmill, which, when the car is in motion, is constantly revolving and forces in air, which adds to the pressure to distribute the air to coming frem the ice. The meat is kept perfectly dry, and is said to be in a better state than when first drossed.

Dualin versus Nitro-Glycerine —Card from Prof. Mowbray.

The following is the full-text of our fellow citizen Goo. W. Mowbray's letter to the Springfield Republican, on the subwill be read with interest by our readers To the Editor of the Republican.

Allow me to correct a wrong impression as to the recent explosion. It has become as to the recent explosion. It has become common for reporters to announce of every explosion, that is especially destructive, "Nitro-Glycerine again." The authorities will probably discover whether the Wordship was consistent by certain will probably discover whether the Worcester explosion was occasioned by certain "exploders" shipped from Boston by the Oriental powder company, or whether ten cases marked "glass," and billed dualin, were either of them shipped according to law, for few will dispute, that these packages were the elements of destruction.

The "exploders" consist of a priming, sensitive to electricity, and an explosive electricity, and an explosive electricity, and the thermal consistency of inhainsten mercury, i about ten grains in each, with the varnished cotton-covered copper wire attached to convey the electricity for exploding them. I have just completed an investigation as to the composition of "dualin," and find it consists of 30 per cent mono-nitroglycerine and 40 per cent, of saydust. The glycerine and 40 per cent. of sawdust. The sample of dualin I examined was obtained sample of dualin I examined was obtained from the dualin factory of Carl-Ditmars, situated near the depot at Neponset, of which, I believe, Mr. Buckhardt, the re-spectable brewer at Boston, is a one-third partner.

partner.

The mono-nitro-glycerine is exceedingly unsafe to manufacture, to use or to trunsport, and it clearly indicates want of judgement on the part of any manufacturer, to prepare this compound, for it is not nearly as destructive as the trio-nitro glycarine, and yet is far more dangerous to handle. The explosion at Panuma, San Francisco, Wyoming Hotel, New York, and at Ridgefield, N J. were all occasioned by the manufacturers not unoccasioned by the manufacturors not u occasioned by the manufacturors not un-derstanding the fact that there are three different nitro-glyctrines. Of these two are really most dangerous, and not so powerful as the third, which is not dan-gerous, very difficult to explode, but when exploded, is 35 per cent more powerful in its effects than either of the two others. Usually a manufacturer is a maker see in its effects than etner of the two choics. Usually a manufacturer is a maker according to a receipe, and it is rurely that the owners or even the superintendents, are actually able to institute, of themselves, the most econimical (because observing the most econimical (because observing the immutable laws nature), or safest prothe immutable laws nature), or safest process.

The inducements held out, with the most emphatic and persistent assertion, to the contractors of the Hoosae tunnel, have been "Dualin is safe, nitro-glycerine is un-afe: and as dualin is cheaper, by 11 per cent., it is your duty to use it, or at any rate give it a trial." Trials were therefore (I suppose for the above reasons) made, and at the east end, at the central shaft, and at the west end, were complete failures. Only about 39 per cent. of results is compared with the nitro-glycerine in use at the tunnel were obtained, the miners were asphyxiated by the eyanogen gas given off, whilst the contractors were plying, according to M. Ditmar's price of $1.20 per pound for 60 per cent. of a very inferior compound, whereas they had been using trinatro-glycerine, for which they puid $1.30 per pound. At each failure, promises were made to improve the compound, and this last shipment (if it should so prove to be jof 1,000 pounds of dualin, was table outle afe and stronger than pound, and this last surpment in 12 should so prove to be of 1,000 pounds of duali-was to be quite safe, and stronger tha previous shipments.

We now have the painful catastrophe which no assertion can wipe out, cover ir prevariente upon, and it is to be lie the public will this time, insist upon I which no assertion cal the paths with this time, insist upon hav-ing tirst the facts, and next the opinions of such exports as G. E. Barker and Prof. Samuel Johnson, both of Yale college, who will remove all these unexplained mys-teries, and give a clearer idea as to how these explosions do come in connd do not occur in others. Congress ha rescribed, under severe ponalties, the pre autions to be observed in the transporta ion of nitro-glycerine. Let the authori-ies at Worcester look into this matter, ties at Worcester look into this matter, and if the precautions have not been observed, ascertain why. If this explosive can be safely made, and used without accident for three years, by sober men. with an economy of 50 per cent. in removing rock, let it be welcomed; but if it is to kill men. and leave women destitute, then not. George M. Mowbray.

I direct that, my name be inscribed in plain English letters on my tomb. **
I enjoin my friends on no account to make me the subject of any monument, memorial, or testimonial whatever. **
I rest my claims to the remembrance of my country upon my published works, and the remembrance of my friends upon their experience of me in addition thereto. ** ** I commit my coult to the progray of God thesuch care dition thereto. * * . * I commit my soul to the mercy of God through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and I exhort my dear children to try and guide themselves by the teaching of the New Testament in its broad spirit, and put no faith in any man's narrow its letter."

"In that simple but sufficient faith," continued the dean, "Charles Dickens lived and died. In that faith he would have you all live and die also; and if any of you have learnt from his works the eternal value of generosity, purity, kind-ness, and unselfishness, and to carry them ous in action, those are the best 'monu ments, memorials and testimonials' which you, his fellow-countrymen, can raise to his memory."

OCK OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH Rev. Andrew Murdock, who has filled the pulpit of the First Baptist Church for several weeks, was ordained os its pastor last vening, having successfully and unaninously passed the require examination in the afternoon. A large number of the Baptist clergy were present at the exercises from the surrounding country, and the Church was well filled last evening by our citizens generally. The following were the exercises: The ordination serion by Dr. E. G. Robinson, of Rochester New York; the ordaining prayer by Rev. Mr. Spoor, of Oil City; the laying on of hands by Rev. Drs. Robinson, Drake, Bradford, Tennant; charge to the pastor by Rev. R. H. Austin, of Meadville; sarge to the Church by Dr. Crane, of Meadville. Dr. Robinson preached an edifying discourse on the scope and mission of the pulpit, and the qualifications of the Christian ministry. Every age made its discoveries in religious truth, and had its peculiar religious needs. New truths, new doctrines, a purer and a higher light was continually dawning on the world The first apostles did not comprehend the whole of the gospel, nor had Luther grasped the whole Christian system. It was the divine thought which the preacher must seize, feeling it in the depths of his consciousness, working it out in the propesses of his own mind, living and proving it in his own experience and life. Then it would become a conviction and an emotion of his being, he could then communicate it and impress it upon the minds and characters of others Creeds were well, but the world outgrew them and outlived them. They were not to be despised, but they did not contain all. For what a man really believed he would die for. But the proof of the creed was the life. The life was the touch stone. Christianity never hal so firm a hold or struck its roots so deep in humanity as now. Its principles already pervaded the ivilized world. It filled English litera

AUTO IMENTO,

Morrissey's Saratoga Club-Townspondence of the Bostor fimes.

A few years ago John Morrissey came up from New York and opened a small place on a side street of no great fame and or great reputs. Then he had a good-sized brick building and made his Club famous in all the land. He has just now completed a house to be devoted to his peculiar calling, that has no superior this side of Crockford's. The house will be opened next week. It is far the most gorgens house for play on the Continent. The main floor is divided into three rooms, two of which are devoted to play, and one for dining. The fitting up of the rooms is simply magnificent. The floors are covered with scarlet and white velvet tapestry. The furniture, sideboards, cornices, mantels and mirror frames are French cheval, inlaid with gold. The curtains are silk and dumask. The monogram "J. M." flames out on all sides. Over the mirrors are carved tiger's heads, mouths open to devour, an emblem of the tiger persons will fight within the walls. The chandeliers are gold-gilt, and the brackets are burnished in the same style. On the salous floor there are 125 lights, and 275 in all the house. Private staircases lead on all the house. Private staircases lead in the same style. On the salous floor there are lead-house cost $90,-690. A lot near is owned by a church. The parish would not sell, but the ground a rented to Morrissey for ten years at $1,000 a year, to give room and light for the club-house.
